134 PUBLIC REMARKS. Mayor pro tem Price inquired if there were any persons present who wished to address the City Council on any matter connected with City business not elsewhere considered on the agenda.

Johnny Inghram spoke concerning the amount of money that has gone towards lawsuits brought against the City by a certain Council Member which is approaching the $400,000 mark and the City should present the correct amount to the residents so they may be allowed to see some justification.

Cecil Carpio spoke concerning the lawsuits against the City and would like to see the reports on the actual costs. She commented on the dedication of a Council Member and the fact that the City of Los Angeles resolved similar concerns with the BOAC without going through litigation.

Council Member Morales left council chambers at 8:02 p.m., thereby breaking the quorum.

Mayor pro tem Price declared the meeting recessed at the hour of 8:02 p.m.

Council Member Morales returned to council chambers at 8:04 p.m.

Mayor Pro Tem again called the meeting to order at 8:04 p.m.

Gordon Michael Mego spoke concerning the LAX expansion and provided Council Members with details of his analysis of the Hahn Proposal for the airport, and the City of Hawthorne resolution opposing it.

Paul Russell spoke concerning the proposed car wash and inquired how much had been wasted and what other potential savings are available. He also commented that City Council should be aware that civil rights issues are more important than the cost of a lawsuit.

Milton Brown spoke concerning the redevelopment projects in the City and the fact that the City has not had a development project over 2.3 million in over two years, but neighboring communities have had several development projects in excess of $8 million. He inquired why the City's property is valued so low compared to other properties in the Los Angeles area.

Diane Sambrano spoke concerning the civil rights of Council Members and stated that the Imperial Partners project is not a good project. She commented that it was interesting that the TRF project will now have to pay rent and she displayed a photograph of how downtown Inglewood looked in 1947.

Willie Agee spoke concerning frivolous lawsuits against the City and commented that he would like to see justification for the expenses incurred. He commented that he doesn't understand how someone can say it is discrimination just because they lose a lawsuit.

Frederick Davis spoke concerning the traffic problems at Arbor Vitae because of parked cars during rush hour and the fact that the "no parking" sign is still not posted. He also gave an update on the local sports scores.

There being no further business to be presented, Mayor pro tem Price thanked all the young people present for attending this session and declared the meeting adjourned at the hour of 8:31 p.m.
