

Services Offered

- GIS Data Analysis – Analyzing, comparing and interpreting different types of spatial data using GIS software analysis tools.
- GIS programming & Application Development Services – Develop custom GIS interfaces and programs for internet and desktop computers. Customizing GIS desktop applications for automation of existing web applications.
- GIS Data Collection – Field data collection using Global Positioning System (GPS) with supported software, such as, Trimble's Pathfinder Office and Arc Pad. Data collection involves design, quality control, and data verification, completeness of data inventory, data accuracy, precision and researching data from existing data sources.
- GIS Training - GIS training is offered to internal staff and may be offered to the public upon request. GIS training services provides computer-based and instructor led GIS training courses. The GIS Center provides the opportunity to obtain GIS instruction.
- GIS System Support – Support's the use of GIS technology throughout the City. Provides technical onsite and on call support to our clients and staff.
- Technical Consultation/Project Planning – GIS technical advisement and project planning is offered upon request.