INGLEWOOD POLICE DEPARTMENT
Community Police Academy
Mission Statement

Inglewood Police Chief Mark Fronterotta is committed to reducing crime and the fear of crime in our community. He supports a strong relationship with our community in which all of its citizens, including the business community, enjoy a sense of security and safety as they go about their daily lives.

Patrol Captain Ed Ridens, Jr. has been entrusted with making decisions that will impact the lives of not only the officers under his command, but also the citizens that we provide quality service to and he believes that trust is earned. Therefore, building strong relationships within the community is a must.

Community Partnerships

We are endeavoring to enhance our community support. As such, you must know your concerns are important to us and we will do our best to resolve them. During these challenging times, community support is essential. Partnerships with the community and other federal, state and local entities will enable us to provide the resources our community needs to serve as the beacon for the South Bay.

Mission Statement

The Inglewood Police Department’s mission is to reduce fear of crime and victimization in a manner that elicits public support and approval. We will conform to the highest standards of law enforcement and instill a strong sense of organizational esprit de corps. We will use all available resources in a fair but firm manner that results in the greatest benefit to the community and the organization.

We will maintain an attitude of courtesy and objectivity toward people in all contacts. The Department will ensure the highest degree of cultural sensitivity and human rights awareness among its members.

We will continually assess the manner in which we interact, both within the Department and with the community. We will provide a harmonious work atmosphere that supports a maximum level of professionalism and responsiveness to the public we serve.

The Department will seek state-of-the-art resources necessary to attract the highest quality personnel and to support them in the accomplishment of their assigned tasks. The Department will create a climate supporting teamwork, career development and recognition for all personnel.
