

PROMISE PROGRAM

LOS ANGELES SOUTHWEST COLLEGE

LASC's promise to you is that any first-time, full-time college student can attend LASC tuition free.

Yes, you read that right! LASC is waiving tuition fees and providing guaranteed admission to first-year freshman as part of the College Promise. This means that all students will receive support in their journey to complete a higher education degree and/or a certificate no matter their financial situation.

YOUR Tuition Free EDUCATION

Besides free tuition, Promise students at LASC have access to a dedicated support team of success coaches, counselors and staff who provide classroom and career guidance. Promise students also receive priority placement in math and English courses required to succeed in college. The goal of College Promise is to help students start right so they can end right with a degree, university transfer or a certificate in a timely and efficient manner.
