of Inglewood, California, as follows:

SECTION 1. The above recitals are incorporated into this Order.

SECTION 2. Executive Order No. 20-05 is hereby extended to August 31, 2020.

SECTION 3. This extension of the moratorium on evictions does not relieve a tenant of the obligation to pay rent, nor restrict a landlord's ability to recover rent due.

Tenants will have 1-year from the termination of the local emergency by the City or termination of the state emergency, whichever is later, to pay back the rent.

SECTION 4. If any provision of this Order is found to be unconstitutional or otherwise invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, that invalidity shall not affect the remaining provisions of this Order which can be implemented without the invalid provisions, and to this end, the provisions of this Order are declared to be severable.

SECTION 5. If the extension of Executive Order 20-05 to August 31, 2020 is found to be unconstitutional or otherwise invalid, the date of August 31, 2020 shall be automatically replaced with a lawfully acceptable date that provides tenants with eviction protections to the fullest extent authorized by law.

SECTION 6. The City Council hereby declares that it would have adopted this Emergency Order and each provision thereof irrespective of whether any one or more provisions are found invalid, unconstitutional or otherwise unenforceable.

ORDERED BY THE CITY COUNCIL this 30th day of June, 2020.
