

MAJOR PROJECTS

JAMES T. BUTTS, JR., MAYOR

FALL
2020

NATIONAL DESTINATIONS IN DEVELOPMENT

SoFi STADIUM, 1001 Stadium Dr.

The world's most advanced football venue, SoFi Stadium, opened for its first games in August 2020 as development continues. SoFi Stadium has 70,000 seats with audience capacity up to 100,000. SoFi Stadium is open on all sides with audiovisual technology that reinvents the stadium experience. Major events confirmed: Super Bowl, 2022; College Football National Championship, 2023. Olympics Opening and Closing Ceremonies, 2028.

NFL MEDIA AT HOLLYWOOD PARK, 900 District Dr.

The NFL Media building is an approximately 400,000 square-foot tech office complex within Hollywood Park. The main building features a stunning ground floor lobby, a shared rooftop deck for all tenants, a private terrace on each floor with views into SoFi Stadium, and an outdoor broadcast facility. Over 200 employees of NFL Media will occupy this new headquarters in Summer of 2021; other tenants are in negotiations.

LA PHIL YOLA CENTER, 101 S. La Brea Ave.

The $14.5 million project designed by Frank Gehry, the world-renowned architect of Walt Disney Concert Hall, in collaboration with Gustavo Dudamel, is a light-filled, flexible facility for rehearsals, classes, and performances. YOLA Center will serve up to 500 young musicians a year and host music educators from across the U.S. and around the world. Completion is slated for 2022.

INGLEWOOD BASKETBALL AND ENTERTAINMENT CENTER

The new Inglewood Basketball and Entertainment Center (IBEC) will open in Southwest Inglewood in 2024. In addition to being a new home for the Los Angeles Clippers, IBEC will feature a multi-purpose plaza complete with concert stage, community basketball courts and community gathering spaces. The complex will include a hotel, and a practice facility for the Clippers.

Economic and Community Development Department

Christopher E. Jackson, Sr., Director

For information contact Sharon Mann Garrett, Economic Development Manager, sgarrett@cityofinglewood.org

INGLEWOOD